Special Olympics Oklahoma celebrates the 42nd Annual Summer Games in Stillwater

Theme: SUPER HEROES of Special Olympics.

Statewide. Special Olympics athletes numbering in the thousands will meet in Stillwater May 11 through 13, 2011 to celebrate the 42nd Annual Summer Games held in Oklahoma. More than 4,300 Special Olympics Oklahoma athletes have registered to attend. Staff and hundreds of volunteers are gearing up for three days full of competitions, Olympic-style ceremonies, Olympic Village, food, housing, and many fun activities.

Athletes will start arriving in Stillwater on Wednesday morning, May 11. They will come from the 14 geographic areas of Oklahoma where they have completed competitions in their local areas.

Special Olympics Oklahoma athletes will compete in the following sports: Athletics (Track and Field), Bocce, Bowling, Golf, Horseshoes, Powerlifting, Unified 3-on-3 Basketball, and Unified Softball. Other events include Motor Activities and Stars of the Future.

Opening Ceremonies is scheduled for Wednesday evening, May 11 at Gallagher Iba Arena. The theme for Opening Ceremonies is "SUPER HEROES of Special Olympics." Doors open at 6:30 p.m. with pre-show entertainment. The official Opening Ceremonies begins at 7:30 p.m. with the traditional Parade of Athletes.

The Law Enforcement Torch Run will be highly visible this year escorting the Parade of Athletes, carrying the Flame of Hope, and rappelling into Gallagher Iba Arena. Barry Switzer, Special Olympics Oklahoma Head Coach, will name the 2011 Athlete of the Year and lead the athletes in the Special Olympics Oath as he has done every year for 39 years.
