

Jeff Sewell was a longtime participant in the Law Enforcement Torch Run, who unfortunately lost his life last year to COVID-19. Captain Sewell was a regular at the Summer Games where he loved interacting with the athletes. Captain Sewell also participated in the Polar Plunge every year and was the frequent winner of the costume contest. He is well deserving of the Tim Stafford Unsung Hero Award and will be deeply missed.